Central Park in Platinum

Bruce Davidson: Central Park in Platinum contains fourteen original, hand printed, signed and numbered platinum prints.

This special edition is limited to 50 numbered and signed books. Each handcrafted book is a work of art in itself. The text is handset and letterpressed on 100% cotton-rag paper. Bruce Davidson: Central Park in Platinum is individually hand-bound and encased in a custom clamshell and solid mahogany box. The portfolio also includes two signed and numbered unbound prints suitable for framing. The book includes an introduction written by Charlotte Cotton, curator at the Los Angeles County Museum of Art.

"The craftsmanship of this project is beyond what I could ever achieve using silver gelatin. It is as if the Central Park imagery has been reborn and a new vision of the imagery holds true. The Platinum portfolio has brought me closer to my original vision and closer to the nature of the Park."
